

105.1488 312/Gibson

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

she keep right on after it when she heard the fighting; and when she passed the automobiles she claimed was standing in the Lane why didn't she get the numbers of them and report the affair to the Police."

It was the impression of several people about the vicinity of the crab-apple tree, that when Mrs. Gibson gets enough money she will blow away. Others stated that she was doing it on account of being sore at young Hayes' arrest, and that the two are working together.

Operative left the vicinity of the seat of the crime at about 5.10 p.m., and proceeded to the railroad station. Operative remained about the railroad station, but while there did not hear anything of importance.

At about 10.30 p.m. Operative discontinued.
